b) (MOST IMPORTANT)

- ✓ Candidate has to submit the call letter along with the original Cash Deposit Receipt (Challan).
- ✓ In case original Cash Deposit Receipt (Challan) is lost: Obtain a certificate from Bank's branch where fee has been deposited giving details of the deposit, viz. Name & Category of Candidate, amount & date of deposit, Deposit Journal No. along with account No. in which the amount has been credited (a sample format is attached) failing which he/she will not be allowed to write the examination.

c) The computer recognizes same named persons, with even slight variation, as different entity (viz. Rajasekhar S, Rajasekhar S. and S.Rajasekhar). We therefore do not rule out issuance of more than one call letter to the same candidate, if he / she has registered more than once. It is also possible that the candidates may have fed different details in different registrations (viz. caste, Date of Birth etc.) while registering on-line. Those candidates, who have received more than one call letter, should staple all those call letters received by them keeping the correct one on top and hand them over to the Invigilators in the examination hall/room alongwith the original Cash Deposit Receipt(Challan)

If it is detected later on that a candidate has appeared in the written examination in more than one session, his/her candidature will be cancelled .
