WHO asks Serum for Covishield Trial Data to Begin Global Supply

WHO continues to ask vaccine cos under Covax to register for pre-qualification: Director General

Divva.Raiagopal@timesgroup.com

Mumbai: The World Health Organisation has asked Serum Institute of India to submit its data from clinical trials of the AstraZeneca/ Oxford vaccine conducted in India for prequalification, to kick off the distribution of vaccines under the Covax Facility. WHO prequalification is a service the global organisation provides to facilitate access to medicines that meet unified standards of quality, safety and efficacy. So far this service was for medicines and vaccines against HIV/AIDS, malaria and tuberculosis; now, it is also being extended for Covid-19. The prequalification makes it easier for companies to launch products across the world, specifically in lowand middle-income countries, as it signifies uniform standards.

Serum Institute of India, the local manufacturer of the vaccine developed by Astra-Zeneca Plc and Oxford University, has done a similar study on more than 1,500 peo-

Covax Facility is a collaboration between WHO, GAVI-Vaccine Alliance, and Coalition of Epidemic Preparedness and Innovation (CE-PI) to ensure equitable distribution of Covid-19 vaccines to countries that neither have pre-purchase agreements with vaccine makers nor have manufacturing capabilities in their countries. Serum Institute of India is one of the manufacturers that has signed up to supply up to 400 million doses of vaccines to the Covax Facility. In the first quarter, the company is expected to supply 200 million doses of the AstraZeneca/Oxford vaccine which it has developed in India and branded as Covishield. Serum also has a tieup with US drug maker Novavax to supply vaccines to the Covax Facility.

Indian vaccine manufacturers, with a capacity to manufacture more than a billion vaccine doses, are expected to play a crucial role in distribution of Covid-19 vaccines.

Serum Institute and Bharat Biotech have already struck deals with the South African government to supply one million doses of vaccines and Bharat Biotech has announced that it will be supplying vaccines to Brazil.

The WHO director general has called for a collective commitment so that within the next 100 days vaccination of health workers and those at high risk categories starts across all countries.

A WHO team is also working with producers of Sinovac and Sinopharm vaccines developed in China to assess compliance with international quality manufacturing practices ahead of potential emergency use listing by WHO, Adhanom had said.

Over 2.5 lakh doses of Covishied and 20,000 doses of Covaxin have reached various centres

Teena.Thacker@timesgroup.com

New Delhi: Vaccination against Covid-19 in Delhi will start at 89 centres located in 40 government and 49 private hospitals on Saturday.

"The first batch of 254,500 doses of Covishield and 20,000 doses of Bharat Biotech's Covaxin have reached Delhi so far." a government official said. "More batches will follow.

Every centre has been asked to vaccinate at least 100 people per day, the official said. The numbers will, however, depend on the vaccine availability.

Once the process to vaccinate healthcare workers and frontline workers starts, the Delhi government has asked the district magistrates to collect data about people above 50 years of age and younger ones with comorbidities.

"After this, we start with the preparations regarding data collection of people above 50 years of age," the official said.

A prominent private healthcare provider in Delhi said the state government has alerted them to be ready for the vaccination drive starting on January 16.

"Dry runs have happened," said another official from a private hospital. "As it involves a lot of IT infrastructure, the state government had brought their own system. They have asked us to identify people who are trained to inoculate, and space where inoculations can be given.

Earlier, the Delhi government had asked the private hospitals to provide a list of healthcare and frontline providers to be inoculated in the first phase. "The lists of the people who qualify for the first round have been submitted to the Delhi government," the official said.

Earlier this month, the Drug Controller General of India (DCGI) gave emergency use approval to two Covid-19 vaccines - Se rum Institute of India's Covishield and Bharat Biotech's Covaxin

VK Paul, member (health) at NITI Aayog, had on Tuesday said the vaccines have been tested on thousands of people and sideeffects are negligible. Calling the two vaccines the "safest", he said there was no risk of any significance.
