In subtle change, India's statement at UNGA hints at tilt towards Israel

Indrani.Baqchi @timesgroup.com

New Delhi: India effected a subtle shift in its Middle East policy last week. Between its intervention in the UN security council on May 16 and its statement in the UN general assembly on May 20, India's stance shifted perceptibly towards Israel. For possibly the first time, India dropped a stock line from its statement on the Israel-Palestine crisis: "India's strong support to the just Palestinian cause and its unwavering commitment to the two-State solution." This was part of the Indian statement in the UN security council just a few days prior, but absent from the general assemblv statement.

In addition, India's condemnation of the Hamas

"This new work programme will further strengthen the bilateral relations and mutual cooperation between the two countries in the field of agriculture for the benefit of the farming community. The Centres of Excellence (COEs) established under these Israeli-based action plans are playing an important role in doubling farmers' income," said agriculture minister Narendra Singh Tomar on Monday. He said, "The exchange of technology between India and Israel will greatly improve the productivity and quality of horticulture, thereby increasing the income of farmers." TNN

India reserved its condemnation for Hamas' actions categorising Israeli actions as retaliatory in self-defence. In its UNSC statement of May 16. India had condemned the Hamas firing, categorised the Israeli action as "retaliation" and de-hyphenate New Delhi's support for the Palestine cause from its condemnation of Hamas actions.

Panel to select CBI chief zeroes in on 3 names

New Delhi: Amid strong objections from leader of Congress in Lok Sabha Adhir Ranjan Chowdhury over what he called was violation of the appointment procedure, the highpowered committee to select the CBI director shortlisted three IPS officers - VSK Kaumudi, Subodh Jaiswal and Kumar Rajesh Chandra - for the top post which has been lying vacant for over four months.

Well-placed sources said the panel, comprising PM Narendra Modi, CJI N V Ramana and the opposition representative Chowdhury, zeroed in on Kaumudi, Jaiswal and Chandra and one of them is likely to get the nod.

The shortlisting came under fire from Chowdhury, who argued that the government had illegally trimmed a list of 109 officers to 16 just hours before the meeting. TNN

Pak reluctant to issue visas, India recalls a few officials

Work At High Commission Likely To Be Hit

Sachin.Parashar @timesgroup.com

New Delhi: Following differences with Pakistan over assignment visas, India has withdrawn a few of its staff members from the high commission in Islamabad, TOI has learnt. Pakistan's reluctance to issue assignment visas to Indian diplomats and other staff members despite repeated requests is said to have lead to the recall. Islamabad has not issued visas for the past two years to Indian officials, except on a few occasions, it is learnt. Pakistan had approved the appointment of Indian charge d'affaires Suresh Kumar last year but only after it denied visa to Jayant Khobragade, India's original pick for the job. Islamabad had rejected Khobragade's appointment saying he was too senior to head the mission when ties had been downgraded.

While assignment visas are based on reciprocity and can take time, the recent and protracted delay in approval despite several reminders to Islamabad has clearly not been to India's liking. Indian officials scheduled to return to India were apparently finding it difficult to wait indefinitely in the absence of visas to their proposed replacements. The recall is likely to further restrict the day-today functioning of the Indian high commission with the countries having already cut by half the strength of their respective missions following India's decision to downgrade ties last year. After India revoked the special status of Jammu and Kashmir in August, 2019, Pakistan had also recalled its high commissioner, forcing India to do the

The delay in issuing assignment visas also may not seem in consonance with the sentiment expressed by some sections in Pakistan, particularly by Army chief Gen Qamar Bajwa, in the past few months that it was time to move ahead to unlock the economic potential of the region by working together.

Earlier, Pakistan asked 12 officials of the Indian High Commission (IHC) in Islamabad to quarantine, along with their family members and drivers, after one of them reportedly tested positive for the coronavirus since their arrival from India last week, the Foreign Office said. PTI

Meat-seller thrashed for transporting 'buffalo meat
