13. The contractor will bear all the expenses/ costs, stamp duty, legal fees to be incurred to execute this contract. This contract will be executed in duplicate, the Bank shall retain the original and the contractor shall be provided with a certified / notarized copy only for their record and reference purpose.

14. The contractor will bear all taxes/ cesses, levied by Central/ State Government/ Local Body and payable in respect of rendering the service(s) under this contract.

15. The contractor will meet the competent authority/ authorized official(s)/ Officer-in-Charge of the Bank at the specified frequency to assess the quality of the services rendered by the Contractor. The Contractor shall be duty bound to the carry out the suggestions/ observations given by the competent authority/ authorized official(s)/ Contractor Signature with Seal
Officer-in-Charge of the Bank. The continuance of the contract will depend upon the satisfactory performance of the service(s) and the Bank exclusively retains the right to terminate this contract by issuing one month’s notice to the contractor in the event the service(s) rendered by the Contractor are found to be non-satisfactory or due any other reason(s) and the decision of the Bank in this regard will be final and binding, without incurring any liability to the Bank and the Bank will also not be responsible for any loss arising out of termination of the present contract. Bank shall not pay any claim/compensation by Contractor for termination of contract.

16. It is aptly made clear that, this contract is for rendering Integrated Facility Management Services (Housekeeping & Maintenance Services) and it is not intended or by any means to be construed that the Contractor would supply contract labour to the Bank. By this contract, it is not intended to create employer-employee relationship, or a partnership/joint venture between the parties. The persons/workmen/employees employed by the contractor will always be the employees to the Contractor and the Contractor will make it clear to its labour that they will not have any right to claim service/permanency in the Bank or salary and benefits available to the employees/staff of the Bank.

(i) Bank shall be at liberty to terminate the contract by issuing one month’s notice to the Contractor without assigning any reason whatsoever. Bank shall not pay any claim/compensation by Contractor for termination of contract.

(ii) This contract shall stand terminated by efflux of time or earlier by giving one month’s advance notice by the party of its intention to do so. The Bank may instruct the Contractor to continue to render the services till the next Contractor is appointed by the Bank and Contractor will not be entitled to claim any additional amount for rendering the subject services during the notice period.

(iii) As regards unsatisfactory performance or non-compliance with any of the terms and conditions of the contract/tender documents/work order by the Contractor or abandoning the work, the Bank shall have the right to terminate the contract forthwith with one month’s notice and rearrange the work through other agencies at Contractor’s risk, cost and consequences and under such circumstances, the security deposit submitted by the Contractor shall stand forfeited, besides any other action deemed fit including recommendation for de-paneling the contractor or debarring them in future tendering process.

(iv) On termination or conclusion of the instant contract, as the case may be, the Contractor will return the machine(s)/equipment(s)/any other things provided to him by the Bank for performance of the obligation under this contract, if any and assist in smooth transition of the service to the next Contractor appointed by the Bank.

18. The Contractor undertakes, accepts and admit the absolute and complete responsibility for the service conditions, claims, damages and other compensations payable to its labour employed by him for subject services and unequivocally assume responsibility for due compliance with all the requirements of its statutory obligation, duties and responsibilities and liabilities including insurance cover/policy of his labour employed by him for subject services.
19. (i) Before taking up the work, the Contractor shall, obtain at their own cost and submit to the Bank, a third-party insurance policy, in original, issued by any Public-Sector Insurance Company. Nothing extra shall be payable to the contractor by the Bank on this account.

(ii) The policy should be issued in the joint names of Bank and contractor with Bank’s name appearing first. All labour/persons should be covered under the insurance for insured sum of Rs 5 lac each, for any type of accident/incidence.

20. After completion of each month the contractor will submit his bills to the Bank, with copies of the records showing that the Contractor has paid the minimum wages/salary to his labour and paid their statutory and obligatory dues and components as per terms and conditions mentioned in the tender document. Bank will scrutinize the bills and if found in order will recommend the bills for payment to the Contractor. No advance payments will be made to the Contractors.

21. If there are any complaints or Bank observes that the quality of the services rendered by the Contractor is sub-standard, not as per terms and conditions mentioned in the tender document, the Bank will have sole right to delete or reduce any items of bills or impose suitable penalty/penalties as per terms and conditions mentioned in the tender document before making payment to the Contractor, without assigning any reasons thereof and the decision of the Bank will be final and binding, in this regard.

22. In the event the Contractor fails/neglects to fulfil his obligations on any day or for a number of days, to the satisfaction of the Bank, for any reason, whatsoever it may be, the Bank will levy the liquidated damages as per terms and conditions mentioned in the tender document, this is however without prejudice to the right of the Bank to terminate this contract and also recover further damages from the amount/dues payable to the Contractor.

23. A)

(i) Any and all disputes, controversies and conflicts (disputes) arising out of this contract or in connection with this contract or the performance or non-performance of the right and obligations set forth herein, or breach, termination, invalidity or interpretations thereof shall be referred for arbitration as per terms and conditions mentioned in the tender document. Prior to submitting the disputes to arbitration both the parties shall make all endeavours to settle the dispute(s) through mutual negotiation(s) and discussion(s). In the event, that the said dispute(s) are not settled within 30 days of the arising thereof as evidenced through the first written communication from any party notifying the other regarding the disputes, the same shall finally be settled and determined by arbitration.

(ii) The place of arbitration shall be at Delhi and the language used in the arbitration proceedings shall be in English. Arbitration shall be conducted by a mutually appointed sole arbitrator. The sole arbitrator would not be past or present employee of the parties. If the parties are unable to agree upon a sole arbitrator, each party shall appoint one arbitrator and the two arbitrators so appointed by parties, shall appoint the third arbitrator, who shall be the chairman of the Arbitral Tribunal.

(iii) The arbitral award shall be in writing and subject to the provisions of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act 1996 and any amendments thereof. The award shall be enforceable in Courts of competent jurisdiction, at Delhi.

(iv) Pending the submission to arbitration and thereafter, the arbitrator or the Arbitral Tribunal render the award or decision, the parties shall, except in the event of termination of this contract or in the event of any interim order/award is granted under the afore stated Act, continue to perform their obligations under this contract.

B) In the event of the arbitrator dying, neglecting or refusing to act or resigning or being unable to act for any reason, it shall be lawful for the parties to the dispute to appoint another sole arbitrator by mutual consent.

C) The arbitrator may from time-to-time with the consent of the parties, reduce/extend the time for making the arbitral award.

D) Upon every and any such reference, the assessment of the cost incidental to the reference and award respectively shall be in the discretion arbitrator.

E) Subject as aforesaid, the Arbitration & Conciliation Act, 1996 and the rules thereunder and any statutory modifications thereof for the time being in force shall be deemed to apply to the arbitration proceedings under this clause.

24. The Bank will deduct all the taxes deductible at source and issue a certificate to that effect. Any other taxes which are directly payable by the Contractor but not paid by the Contractor to the respective department and if such department raises a demand on the Bank to pay any such taxes, the Bank will make the payment and deduct the same, if any, from the bills payable to the Contractor.

25. The Contractor is duty bound to obtain and retain during the currency of this present contract, all the license, clearances, certificates from the appropriate authorities under the Contract Labour (Regulation and Abolition) Act 1950 and rules framed thereunder required to provide the subject services to the Bank. In the event, any dispute arises out of the non-compliance on the part of the Contractor; the Contractor will have to sort out such disputes at their end, without the Bank being incurring any liability thereof. The Contractor will display all the charts, notices at the work place which are mandatory as the Contract Labour (Regulation and Abolition) Act 1950 etc.

26. The Contractor shall in terms of the provisions of the Section 17, 18 and 19 of Contract Labour (Regulation and Abolition) Act 1950 and rules framed thereunder will provide the amenities to the labour employed by him. In case the contractor fails/ neglects to provide such amenities, the Bank will provide such amenities and cost incurred for providing such amenities will be deducted from the bills payable to the Contractor. The Contractor will be responsible/liable to maintain and produce, as and when required, all the statutory documents/registers/records/statements and accounts in compliance with all the statutory provision/requirements for providing the subject services to the Bank.

27. In terms of the Contract Labour (Regulation and Abolition) Act 1950 and rule no. 72 and 73 framed there under and as per terms and conditions mentioned in the tender document, the Contractor undertakes to disburse/pay by cheque or by Bank account transfer, the minimum wages/ salary payable to its labour. The Contractor shall submit on every month to the Bank, a statement showing minimum wages/ salary amounts credited in the Bank account of individual labour deputed at the subject Bank premises. Any violation of the aforesaid provisions of the law will entail the termination of the instant contract in addition to such other penal consequences.

28. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this contract, the Contractor shall not assign it’s right to any third party to perform any of its obligations hereunder and in the event of such violation, the Bank reserves it’s right to terminate the present contract without prejudice to the its other rights and remedies.

29. Notwithstanding anything contained in the presents, the Contractor shall be responsible for the loss, if any, caused to the Bank due to theft/ pilferage and/ or damage to the Bank’s property, when in the opinion of the Bank, such loss has been caused due to the acts or omission, negligence, recklessness or any fault which is attributable to the Contractor or its labour engaged by him for rendering the subject services.

30. If by any act/ ordinance / rules or statute prohibits employment of contract labour by the Contractor for the services as envisaged in the presents or otherwise, the present contract shall come to an end forthwith and no compensation whatsoever will be payable to the Contractor or his workmen/ employees.

31. This contract, and the rights and obligations of the parties, shall be governed by and construed, interpreted and enforced in accordance with the laws of India. Both the parties irrevocably agree that any legal action or proceedings arising out of this contract or in relation to the transactions contemplated herein, may be brought in the Courts at Delhi having jurisdiction over the matter and both the parties irrevocably undertake to submit themselves to the jurisdiction of Courts, at Delhi.

32. No change, deletion, modification, amendment or supplement to this contract shall be binding upon a party hereto unless made, in writing and signed by duly authorized representatives of both parties and such changes will form the part of the present contract for all purposes.

33. Any notice required or permitted to be given under this contract shall be, in writing and shall be deemed given effective immediately upon the receipt thereof, as evidenced by a written record of delivery. All notices shall be sent on the addresses mentioned hereinabove, unless the parties convey the change, in writing to the other.

34. The provisions of this contract shall be severable and if any provision of this contract is held or declared to be illegal, invalid or unenforceable, such illegality, invalidity, or unenforceability will not affect any other provision hereof, and the remainder of this contract, disregarding such invalid portion, this contract will continue in full force and effect as if such void provision had not been contained in it.

35. After conclusion/ termination of the contract, the Contractor will remove its workmen/ employees/ machines deployed at the subject premises of the Bank and duly hand over the machines/ equipment’s, if any, provided to the Contractor by Bank to render the services in working condition, subject to normal wear and tear due to usage.

36. The Contractor do hereby undertake to indemnify and hold harmless the bank and its employees against any damages, prosecution, other legal suits and claims which may arise in terms and conditions of the presents and which may directly/ indirectly arise out of any accident taking place at the subject premises which is directly attributable to non-adherence/ negligence of safety norms, not adhering to the standard work procedures and for violating rules and regulations by the Contractor for which the Contractor will only be solely responsible.

37. Neither party will be liable under this contract for any failure of or delay in performance of its obligations hereunder, if performance of the party is delayed or prevented by acts of God, fire, explosion, war, terrorism, earthquakes, riots, laws and order or other causes as mentioned in detail in the tender document beyond such party’s control (each, a “Force Majeure Event”), but only to the extent of and during continuance of the Force Majeure Event and only provided such party, as soon as practicable but not more than 48 (Forty-eight) hours, gives the other party written notice of the Force Majeure Event.
