(i) PVA Clause is operative either way i.e. if the variations in above referred price indices are on the plus side. PVA shall be payable to the contractor and if they are on the negative side PVA shall be recoverable from the contractor for the respective bill period of occurrence of fluctuations.

(ii) The rates quoted by the Contractor shall be treated as firm for the value of work required to be done in the first 12 months of the contract period from 166 the date of written order to commence work and no PVA is admissible on the same on any grounds whatsoever. The value of work required to be done during the first 12 months of the contract period shall be taken as 80% of the value of work to be done on pro-rata basis in 12 months as compared to the total stipulated completion period. No PVA is admissible on the value of work required to be done in first 12 months as worked out above, even if this value of work is actually done in a period longer than 12 months. However, in case of any delay in the first 12 months due to genuine reasons which are not attributable to the contractor and which are beyond his control, such period of delay will be deducted from 12 months and the value of work to be done will be 80% of the pro-rata value of work to be done in such reduced period on pro-rata basis.

(iii) (a) For works where the original stipulated period of completion is not more than 12 months, no PVA whatsoever is permissible under this clause. However, if the period of completion is delayed beyond 12 months on account of genuine reasons which are not attributable to the contractor and which are beyond his control, PVA will be admissible on the value of work done only in excess of value of work required to be done on a prorate basis in the first 12 months minus the period of such genuine delay.

(b) For purpose of admissibility of PVA all the cumulative period of extensions granted for reasons which are solely attributable to the contractor is excluded from the total extended period of the contracts and PVA shall not be admissible on the value of work done during such period of extensions, which are granted for keeping the contract current, but only due to reasons for which the contractor was solely responsible. Periods of extensions granted on account of genuine reasons which are not attributable to the contractor and which are beyond his control will however, be included in the period for which PVA is admissible.

(c) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary mentioned in any other clause/ clauses of the contract, extensions of the contract period shall be granted by the Architect only with prior approval of the Bank. Extensions granted by the Architect without Bank's prior approval shall not bind the Bank for payment of PVA for work done in the concerned period of extensions.

(iv) (a) Where the total cost of work done beyond the value of work required to be done in the first 12 months (vide note (ii) and (iii) above does not exceed Rs.50 lacs the total amount of PVA worked out on the basis of provisions of foregoing stipulations will be limited to an upper ceiling of 10% of such value of work done in excess of value of work required to be done in the first 12 months, minus the cost of any materials issued/arranged by the Bank at fixed prices i.e. $P - Y$ (these terms being as per definitions given formulae A and B above).

(b) Where the total value of work done beyond the value of work required to be done in the first 12 months exceeds Rs.50 lacs, the PVA on the first Rs.50 lacs will be calculated as provided for in the foregoing para and for the balance value of work done for which PVA is admissible subject to foregoing conditions, the PVA will have the upper ceiling of 10% but it will be worked out at a lower rate i.e. 80% of the amount worked out as per the formulae A and B referred to earlier.

(v) In working out the amount of PVA as per all the foregoing stipulations, value of such extra items or such portions of extra items the rates of which are derived from the prevailing market rates of materials and labour will not be included in the value of work done. Value of only such extra items or such portions of extra items, rates of which are derived entirely from tendered rates will be included in the value of work on which PVA as calculated.

(vi) For claiming the payment for PVA the contractor shall keep such books of accounts and other documents, vouchers receipts etc. as may be required by the Bank/ Architect, for verification of the increased claims or reduction to be made as the case may be and he shall also allow Engineers and/or other duly authorized representatives of the Bank/ Architects and furnish such information as may be required or called for to enable verification of the claim within a week of such request.

(vii) The contractor is required to submit to the Bank, through the Architect, his claims for PVA separately for each running Bill for the individual bill periods for the work paid to him by the Bank. He will also be required to submit detailed calculations in support of the claims.

(viii) No claim will be entertained from the contractor for interest or any other grounds for non-payment or for any delay in payment of PVA due to late publication or non-availability of the necessary price indices or due to delay in preparation of the Running or Final Bills.

(ix) In view of adjustments for variations in process of materials and labor which have been covered in this clause no other adjustments for any reason whatsoever like statutory measures, taxes, levies, etc. will be allowed.
